

Rev. Belding Bingham

Rev. Billy Don English

*Rev. Bill D. English
July 1975*

The Neophyte (Part 2)

LEXICONS
RITUALS

Book: "The Cornerstone of Magick"
Spiritual Healing
The Ten Tasks of the Neophyte

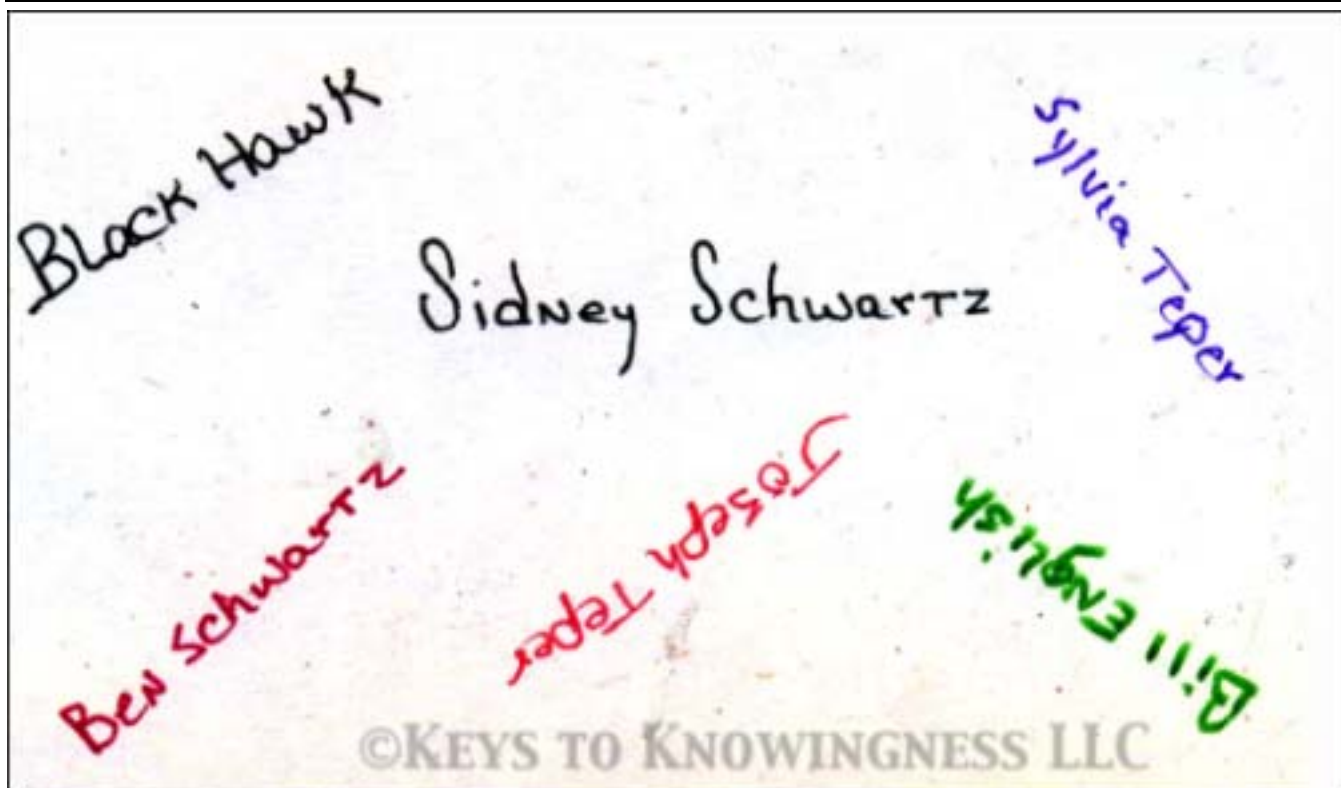

This is the title page of a book that belonged to Bill English. Compare his actual signature to the one he put on the cards, after his death

Below is a picture of a slate that Spirit produced during the 1890's through the mediumship of C.E. Winas and A. Norman at Marshalltown, Iowa. This slate is one of the many exhibits at Hett Art Gallery and Museum at Camp Chesterfield, Chesterfield, Indiana.

It is impossible not to recognize that this is picture of Judas kissing Jesus. The card is signed by my maternal grandparents: Joseph and Sylvia Teper, Black Hawk, one of my guides, and Ben Schwartz, one of my father's brothers. The face in the upper left-hand corner of the picture is the face of the artist who drew this picture.

This is a picture that Rev. Carl Hewitt received at a precipitated card séance with Rev. Hoyt Robinette as the medium, on August 16, 1999. The eagle soaring in the clouds represents Lone Eagle, Carl's Spirit control. The wolf represents Lone Wolf, another Native American who has been protecting Carl all of his life. The face is of the artist who drew the picture. Rev. Bingham, Rabbi Baer and Billy Don English were all mediums that Carl knew when they were alive.

This is a picture of Awan, as he appeared during his last incarnation. The glowing blue light around his body is the blue corona, the outer most part of the aura. I received this picture at a precipitated card séance with Rev. Hoyt Robinette as the medium, on August 23, 2000. Awan signed this card. Chief Black Hawk is one of my Native American guides, who I first met in my 1985 visit to Camp Chesterfield. Ben Schwartz was one of my father's brothers.

Above right is Carl's second card of Jesus, who is pointing to a mountain. The top left is Carl's card of Awan, whose golden wings represent golden divine protection. The middle left is my card of Awan. The lower left is a picture of Chief Lone Eagle, Carl's Spirit Control. To the right of it is my Native American guide, Chief Black Hawk. In 1985, Black Hawk told me, through the trumpet, that someday a picture of him would be in a book I would write. This confused me, because at the time, I had not yet witnessed the gift of Precipitated Art.

Jesus—August 2000

Chief Lone Eagle—August 2000

Chief Black Hawk—May 2001

Both Awan cards—May 2002

Bridge in Lisbon, Portugal

William Nicas

Edna Nicas

In August 2000, Pam Jane Rhoden received this card at one of Hoyt's seances. She did not recognize the portraits of her grandparents. A month after she received this card, Pam's mother died. She inherited her grandmother's pendant.

Pam Jane Rhoden wearing her grandmother's pendant, identical to the one her grandmother wore on her portrait.

Precipitated Pictures from Spirit

©KEYS TO KNOWINGNESS LLC

