Introduction

I currently am staying at my mom's house, which houses many of my possessions, along with many items that had belonged to Rev. Carl R. Hewitt, and all the Gifts of the Spirit Church files. Since mom's passing, I have reorganized the house and discovered many treasures that belonged to her and items from my childhood.

The house has three floors, and the top-level is where all the church files are stored. There is also an old desk on that floor. The other day, as I passed this desk, I happened to see a small notebook, and wondered what it contained. When I opened it, I was surprised to see Carl's handwriting. This notebook was a journal that Carl wrote about what he considered one of the most significant events in his life — when he first met the ascended master Ramtha, the Enlightened One.

As I read the journal, I became sad; I wish I had discovered this a few years earlier. There was detail contained in Carl's journal that was not part of the book about Carl's life: A Medium's Diary: Psychic Events in the Life of Rev. Carl R. Hewitt.

Then I thought, Why not "publish" Carl's journal on July 7, which is Gifts of the Spirit Church's 43rd anniversary, since the first service occurred on July 7, 1977, which is the same day that Ramtha first visited J. Z. Knight!

I transcribed Carl's journal precisely as he wrote it —in his own words. However, I have inserted a few comments or explanations. I used a different font for my words, so there will be no confusion on who "is speaking."

These are Carl's words

These are Sid's words

Please enjoy reading Carl's journal about an event he truly treasured.

Carl Hewitt's First Meeting with Ramtha Written in his Own Words!!

Friday May 9, 1986

Driving to Tampa from Orlando on Friday May 9, driving to the airport Holiday Inn at 7:15 p.m.

Worst storm ever recorded at the airport. J. Z. plane landed at 7:12.

I arrived at 7:15. The storm hit at 7:17. Lasted for 7 minutes and disappeared as fast as it came, along with winds so strong that cars became stalled against its force. Rains so heavy that it was not in drops by solid water. Lighting was coming down in double bolts. Thunder was in double explosions.

Saturday May 10th 1986

We were ushered into the Grand Ball Room at 1:00 p.m. I was told by Spirit to sit at a certain part of the room, which was the farthest away from the entrance. Soon the whole room was teeming with 200 people all feeling higher than high can be described.

Then all eyes turned to where I was sitting and standing right beside me was J. Z. Knight. Then she walked to the stage and talked to the audience, looking like a beautiful 19-year-old girl.

Then leaving the audience to go into trance, returning in about 15 minutes as Ramtha.

3 hours 30 minutes later was the first break.

1.5 hours we returned

9:00 p.m. teaching is over

Sunday May 10, 1986

9:00 a.m.

We entered the room to find Ramtha waiting for us. The room was filled rather quickly and Ramtha asked that all mothers stand. And the most touching address to them that could ever be uttered. Men as well as women openly wept. Very touching!!!

Then the address of coming change. East coast,
sun spot, very large to create worst drought in history.
Not safe to live the city
Pestilence in the cities

2 years of winter
Store food, lock doors.

The Touch by Ramtha
"The Shirt" not to be laundered.

[For some reason Carl did not describe what happened in his notebook What follows is the description I wrote in A Medium's Diary.]

When the lecture was over, Ramtha turned and began to walk off the stage. Then suddenly, he stopped, turned and marched into the audience, directly to Carl. He grabbed Carl by one of his biceps and turned him slightly. Then with his other hand, Ramtha began at the back of Carl's neck and ran his hand down Carl's spine. As he did this, he knighted Carl as a teacher.

This was a tremendous moment for Carl. Imagine if you can living your childhood as an outcast, considered a possession of the devil, now you are being honored by one of the highest, and enlightened beings in the universe!

Carl was so thrilled by this event that when he returned home, he took the shirt that he wore that day, and sealed it up in a jar. It remained in that jar for about 15 years.]

The following appears to be an affirmation that Carl wrote.

Internal Christ
Grand Conscience!
Vortex of Understanding!
Future calendar of Events
Ominous Curtain awaiting to be lifted
Comfort Love
Kernel of the Peach
Christ of the Ultimate
Christ Realized
Christ is the God who was Man first!
We are all Christs awaiting to come forward
God — Man — Christ
Friends to all our Enemies.

The following appears to be an announcement that Carl wanted in the newspaper and to be sent to the people on his mailing list.
