

Carl Teaching in the Spirit World

Sandra Brown attended Carl's psychic development classes and Gifts of the Spirit Church, during the church's beginning years. She eventually met a man, and Carl married them. A year later, they had a baby girl that they named Shan-Estelle. Then for many years the Brown family lived in Georgia. Shortly before Carl moved to South Carolina, Sandra returned to Connecticut, and even helped Carl pack his belongings when he moved to Charleston.

Recently Shan-Estelle has graduated Yale medical school. This entry is a dream that Shan-Estelle had about Carl.

Here is a dream that I had about a few months after Carl's transition:

I found myself inside a hall with high ceilings and lots of rooms with wide entrances without doors. The walls had a warm orange-peach hue, which made me feel comfortable. Inside the hall were huge smooth columns that were wider than I could reach around. Lots of people were milling around, and even though some people were moving through the hall in so many different directions, no one collided. They either walked alone or in groups of two. Some people were talking to each other, and they all wore simple loose-fitting shirts and pants.

While standing in the hallway, I turned around and saw Carl. When I was a little girl, I would run to him and jump into his arms as soon as I recognized him. I ran to him in the same way that I have always done. He looked a little younger and very refreshed. He said to me, "Let me show you where I work," and we started walking around the halls. We walked to a room where about 10 people sat on the floor watching a screen. I don't remember what was on the flashing screen but I remember the people were watching and concentrating – they didn't notice me sit down behind them with my legs crossed. Carl said, "Oh no, you're more advanced than that. Come with me." We continued to walk and I realized that this place was a school and that Carl was teaching these people.
