TAMMY: I have a little problem here. The first voice that you heard was that of Little Roy. Little Roy is one of my students and we gave him permission to try out the voice box. But he forgot the words. Little Roy was a Chinese boy; he prefers the Chinese rather than the American in which he lived in in the past. We are working with the instrument, so hold on just a moment. It would be nice if you would sing another song so we could draw some more energy so we can get going here.

ALL: Singing "How Great Thou Art"...last four lines joined by Lone Eagle.

LISA: How was that?

LONE EAGLE: That was great. We need a little bit more.

LISA: OK.

ALL: Continuing singing with second verse of "How Great Thou Art". Joined after a couple of lines by Lone Eagle.

LONE EAGLE: It's not always easy to speak through a voice that can't carry a tune. Good evening, friends.

ALL: Good evening.

LONE EAGLE: I guess you know that this is the Chief speaking, but the one that has been waiting to speak to you will be stepping in in just a moment.

PAUL: Chief?

LONE EAGLE: Yes.

PAUL: Were you using the trumpet just a moment ago?

LONE EAGLE: The trumpet was in the air, but..

PAUL: OK.

LONE EAGLE: the energy is not quite right. We are..your teacher has been too stubborn to bother with trumpets in the past. So, as he was reading in the book earlier--we were listening to what he was reading--and we noticed that he was having to eat his own words...Just give us a second.

KATY: They were beautiful words we heard.

NATHANAEL: Well, a jolly good evening to you.

ALL: Good evening.

NATHANAEL:

It is a pleasure that I might be able to speak to you this evening. Well, we have a whole lot of gatherings going on here in the tent tonight. We were standing by earlier listening to the words of wisdom from one of the great masters who has spoken in his time through the channel. For one reason or another, he doesn't feel worthy of that happening to him, but we feel it's about time he wakes up to realize that he has been a channel in many lifetimes, not only in the present but in those lifetimes that have gone way beyond anything or any way that you could count time. But I speak to you tonight because there is a great wave of spiritual understanding coming to the surface of the minds of the people that bow walk on your earth plane. You are many steps ahead of those, but before you see the last day of this year that you are in now, you will see so many people that would not think along these lines coming and mingling with you-- asking questions and receiving answers. Your world at the moment is in great turmoil. It is only through this awakening of truth that will bring about a collective thought force of love, of God, self, and of nature as you know it to be. It is unfortunate as we look back over the vibrations of times long ago when man put drapings over the light of understanding. For wasn't it the great master who said "What good is it going to be to light a lamp and then put it under a bushel basket?"

It was the theologians of the past that did exactly that. For the very lamp that was lit by that master teacher was draped over with the dogmas and creeds, fears, superstitions, and eventually the light was almost extinguished. And yet it is the kind of light that can never be completely extinguished. For far down, and in, and under that pile of garbage that they piled on top of it, the small light kept burning. That light today is starting to glow stronger than it has ever glowed before. It is people like you that keep stripping away layer after layer of the drapings of the past. And soon the brilliance of this light shall touch the whole world. Your world is ready for this. The world can go either one way or the other at this time. You have no choice. Your world will be annihilated and become a dead planet or it can go the opposite way and be a heaven on earth, a paradise. It is entirely up to those that live on the earth plane. It is not up to us, although we have interceded and we are working with others. But mankind must turn their thoughts toward the light of truth and knowledge that is already within themselves. You, as we have said in the past, have been chosen to help others. There is no one in the room at the time that ^{really} knows the impact of the mission of your life at the given moment. For you must proceed to bring about an inner development so that you might be a better channel, to bring about the knowledge of healing, the proof of the continuity of life, and to take away

NATHANAEL: (Cont'd) the fear of death and dying from the minds of people. In time you will unite with others and bring about a better understanding with those that you are related to through the blood line, as well as strangers that cross your path. I am going to back away and let the Chief speak, for those of you that are interested in expressing questions that we might be of service to you.

CHIEF: Good evening, once again.

ALL: Good evening.

CHIEF: It is a pleasure that I might be able to touch with you tonight as I have done in the past. I usually stand in the back as the door keeper, but tonight I have been asked to stand in the front and to work with the medium. And I would like to greet each one of you personally. And I send my greetings out at this time to the nice lady by the name of Florence.

FLORENCE: Welcome.

CHIEF: And to Robert.

ROBERT: Good evening.

CHIEF: And to Lee.

LEE: Welcome, Chief.

CHIEF: And to Katy.

KATY: Welcome.

CHIEF: And to Susan.

SUSAN: Good evening.

CHIEF: And to Josef.

JOSEF: Welcome, Chief.

CHIEF: To Lisa.

LISA: Greetings.

CHIEF: And to Paul.

PAUL: Good evening, Chief.

CHIEF: And to Pauline.

POLLY: Welcome, Chief.,.You forgot my name.

CHIEF:

It is a pleasure that I might be able to speak through the channel to you. However, before we go into the questions, little do you know how much energy it takes of the life force of the medium to make it possible. If you had a meter or a gauge as you call it, to register energy, as we use the channel and speak through the channel using our energy, there would be approximately 60% of his own energy and 40% of our energy to make this possible. We draw energy from all of you to compensate from the loss of the energy through the body of the medium. And also reverse the polarity, giving it a perfect balance positive and negative to create a better flow of energy. Irregardless of what we do and how our engineers work, a great deal of energy is used up from the body of the medium. We must ask you at this time to stress the importance of not overdoing, for we feel better at this time of once a month at the changing of the moon, than to do it weekly. We are afraid of the cellular body becoming weakened by overexposure to the psychic energy which is necessary to make this function come about in your presence. If the cellular body is weakened beyond that which we can control, then he would join us on our own plane. We are most grateful for the position that he puts his confidence in so that he might be guided along the path of a structured schedule. The Sunday services that you hold take more energy from him because of the various people who come seeking help and giving very little of themselves.

We ask that all of you cooperate and realize the dangers that mediums encounter during their sojourn in the physical body.

Now, let's have your questions, please. Someone start and move around from that direction.

FLORENCE:

Yes, Spirit. How can we help this country? How can we teach people compassion and love? How can this group here help?

CHIEF:

When you know of a person as you watch them on your TV screens, or you see the picture in your newspaper...if all of you would gather here together, just as you would put the name of those that need healing in your healing book, and send out a positive energy toward that person. If you would gather together with a picture of the person, be it a leader or another country, and direct out the positive healing energy, the love that is within yourself, direct that regardless of what that person has done...regardless of how negative he lives, or she lives, send this out with all of the strength of thought power that you have and it can be a great help in the change that will take place. Remember, you are more of a transmitter than any kind of an electrical transmitter that is created on the earth plane.

- CHIEF: (Cont'd) If you but put energy behind your thought you can transmit it out and circle the globe instantaneously. Do this as a group.
- FLORENCE: Thank you, Spirit.
- ROBERT: Spirit, it occurred to me when you spoke to us about the physical taxing on the channel, I was reminded that I have had the privilege to give him a massage on a couple of occasions. Would you recommend that this is something,,,that this would be something that I could do on a regular basis. Would it be helpful to him? Is there a procedure to include more people in some kind of physical body work that would benefit him?
- CHIEF: It would benefit him a lot better during the healing services, at the end of the service, that all of the healers join together and supply his system with the additional energy that has been generated. The massages that you are referring to are good to a point, but not as good as the supercharges of energy that are available during the healing services. Do you understand?
- ROBERT: Yes, I do. Thank you.
- SUSAN: Spirit, I would appreciate any message that you have for me at this time.
- CHIEF: My child, you have been a healer, not only of the physical, but of the mental as well. You have been planted in this part of your world for a reason. You ask very little of anyone, and yet you receive a great deal. You are the flower that has been brought from far away and planted into our garden. Have confidence as you have now in yourself and in those that you love around you. Do you understand?
- SUSAN: Yes, I do. Thank you.
- LEE: Spirit, a few days ago I had a thought that came to my mind when the channel was speaking at several services, and I was wondering: Do you feel that in the future the church will eventually have a prayer line that can be used 24 hours a day for people in trouble? It is not just a possibility, it is a fact. It is on our--as you call it--drawing board. We understand only too well the thought and the lack of confidence that the medium has in himself of accomplishing the great feats that we have been directing him to do. We do not look at time, because there is no time on our plane. What you have suggested is part of the plan, and in time this will come about because of the changes that have taken place in this year that you are in now, you will see that your church and the people that come to it seeking knowledge will grow, as you term it, by leaps and bounds--in time--and this is not very far off in time that you will have to have a larger edifice to house the people seeking truths of the spirit. One of - CHIEF: (Cont'd) the tools will be because of the recorded truth dealing with Ramtha. For he has been guiding us to guide the channel to guide you to guide others. He is as much in the program as anyone else on this side. We are not alone. Our group outnumbers yours by many thousands. However, there will always be a group of higher evolved teachers or masters as you would say, who are totally in control of the master plans to be carried out on your plane. What you say, my child, is only a part of what is to be. You will play a great part in the plans of the future.

- LEE: Thank you, Spirit.
- KATY: This evening the channel was reading from this book, with the thought coming through that when we know something to be, it will be. I seem to have slipped away from that thought in my life lately. There has been a lot of negative thought in my own mind and I haven't been able to seemingly gotten rid of when I wanted to. Some of it... it has been bothering me because the channel at one point a few weeks ago in messagework, that there are so many millions of souls that didn't believe where they were and were in such darkness. And also, I believe that some of this negativity in my life, very recently, was beyond my control. Is that true? What can I do?
- CHIEF: My child, you have become very sensitive to negative energy fields, and you have walked through two energy fields within the last three of your earth weeks. The negative energy fields are created by others. One would have been created by a person that you were dealing with on the outside; the other was created by a co-worker, that is very negative in their thought processes. You must remember that as you attend the classes you are slowly becoming receptive to both positive and negative thought forms and energy fields. Push this aside and rise above it, for you can do it.
- KATY: May I ask if this person is the one that sits in the corner near me?
- CHIEF: This is correct.
- KATY: Oh, thank you.
- CHIEF: In answer to your other question that was mentioned through the medium, dealing with those thousands, and literally millions of people that are still in darkness, they are in darkness of truth; they are still living in ignorance. They had programmed themselves while they were still in physical form so that when they died they would simply sleep at the feet of some savior, and eventually the savior would wake up and then wake them up and then take them off to some

- CHIEF: (Cont'd) promised land. It is because of their own thought forces that is causing them to still remain in a deep sleep, for any time that we attempt to wake one of them up, they think that we are an evil being in disguise and therefore, we only await the time that they wake and ask for help and then we come to them. We have been called many names on this side, and you can well imagine that the names are in the positive vibration. Regardless of how we might look in our embodiment, they still believe that we are evil beings because of their teachings carried over from the time they were wrapped in orthodox religion.
- KATY: Is it a result of only this last physical life, or previous lives also?
- CHIEF: It would depend on what and when they lived on the earth plane. You must remember that if you look back on your calendar, the programming has only been going on for 1600 of your years.
- KATY: You mean the negative orthodox religious..
- CHIEF: Orthodox religion.
- KATY: Mm hmm. Thank you very much.
- LISA: Welcome, Spirit. Do you have any guidance for me regarding the energy changes that I have experienced since we last met in this group?
- CHIEF: You are moving slowly into another vibratory frequency, of which you are entitled to. You must remember that as you open up your own thought forces as you meditate that you enable yourself to go steps higher as if you were on a pyramid. You have reversed the condition that was hampering the mantle of your spiritual being and as you have proceeded to carry this out, you will notice changes in the frequency vibrations around you. Do you understand?
- LISA: Yes, I do.
- CHIEF: Go forward with this in mind. You will progress a great deal. Do not walk backwards into the conditions that were there, but go forward in the light and understand that you will progress.
- LISA: Thank you.
- JOE: Spirit, first I would like to thank you for the healing and guidance I have received in dealing with the negativity that has been around me. I have more peace of mind now. My question is, I have received a message, a vision, of holding a check--I believe it was a check--the figures

- JOE: (Cont'd) I had a glance...I'm not sure whether it was one million or ten million. Could you refer, have you an answer for this?
- CHIEF: There is such a desire within yourself to win the money that you are referring to that you would be able to split the money in the middle and give it to the channel who is talking now and who has helped you a great deal. We find this most honorable to do so, or to even think this way, but in time you will help out a great deal, but it will be nothing compared to what you are thinking about at the moment. The channel has also had thoughts that would be along the same train of thought. From where we stand, we see money as an enemy of Truth. Money is only a tool. We are working now to bring about the necessary funds to carry out the mission that he is to carry out. You, my friend, will have something to do with it. If any of you in here should be, or carry, a lucky number, it would be because of our interceding through the channel to bring this about because it would be our last resort to do this.
- JOE: And, another question is: Do you have any guidance for me in my spiritual growth?
- CHIEF: Let not the negativity that is now around you interfere with your own growth. Let not the negativity of the workplace interfere as it has in the past. Although you might like to talk with others, and share with others, pick and choose very careful, for they can turn against you and trample you under their feet with their thought forces. Share only with those you feel are ready for it. Others do not share them with the knowledge that you have.
- JOE: Then there isn't too many that I can share the knowledge with?
- CHIEF: You will find more as time goes on. Do not be impatient.
- JOE: I thank you, Spirit.
- POLLY: Chief, I'd like some direction on what I can do most easily for my time of life and for the strength that I have.
- CHIEF: You have not defaulted, my child, on the work that you were to do. So many of you are blind and cannot see what you are doing in life. Some of you feel that what you are doing is not important at all to yourself and to others. You are a catalyst for healing. In your own way more than you would ever know, we use you as a catalyst. You are like the beacon on the shore. We are the energy that creates the light through you to help others. You did not know this.
- POLLY: No.
- CHIEF: We are satisfied with what you are doing. You must be extremely careful with your legs because there is now a weakness now in one leg that you must favor over the other. Do you understand?

- POLLY: Yes. May I ask about this cold? It's been dragging on for a month...a terrible mess.
- CHIEF: It is not a cold as you would know it, but it is a combination of three viruses that many of you in the group would have had, some worse than others. The channel had his bout as you put it, with the same type of virus. It will stay and linger still for a few of your days and then it will fade away. You need to get more rest than you have been getting. Do you understand.
- POLLY: Yes, I do. Thank you very much.
- PAUL: Good evening, Chief.
- CHIEF: Good evening, my son.
- PAUL: I'm sure you know that I've got lots of questions.
- CHIEF: There's always one in every group.
- PAUL: Yeah, well I won't use up the energy. In thinking about this, you have no time, we have time. And I suppose some of these questions might be answered in the book that was being read tonight. But as your thoughts come into this plane, how do they enter into this plane? And, is there a problem with translation...if your language is thought, then is it like translating it into our language, such as you would translate a language on this plane?
- CHIEF: You must remember, that the channel...for example, the entity that we are using at this moment,..we direct the thought forces which activate the mind of the memory bank that is stored within the spirit of the body. Quite often the interpretation of the message does not come out exactly as we transmit it, simply because it is not recorded properly in the memory bank. Many cases we correct it, but many cases the person that receives it interprets it in the proper form because we help them do so...in other words, they understand it differently than it is being presented.
- PAUL: Mm hmm.
- CHIEF: You are one of these that interpret it differently. Sometimes you are way off track and then you ask questions of the channel when he's in his conscious state and you get your answer.
- PAUL: That makes sense because this happened in the past. Do you have any quidance for me now in general?
- CHIEF: The timeframe that you are now in is a time that you might term transitional. Because you are becoming quite restless

- CHIEF: (Cont'd) with yourself that your wheels of life are not turning as fast as they should. If you broke it down, you would find that some of your wheels of life have bumps in them. Therefore, you have to go slow, because the faster you go, the more you would feel the bump. So you are going rather slow so that you can pretend the bump is not there. You just have to wait until you have been able to register in the new energy field that you have been entering...
- PAUL: Mm hmm.
- CHIEF: ...you have been told by us in the past that you are moving into a new energy field of seven years. If you would take one of what you would call an album of music and look at it through a magnifying glass, you would see grooves starting on the outer edges, and eventually coming toward the end on the inner edge, or near the center, or the hub of the circle. Do you understand so far?
- PAUL: Mm hmm.
- CHIEF: At the moment, you are in the first part of what you term the groove. You cannot be midway in this energy field because you have got to experience all of the other activity that is still ahead for you. So don't be as the channel would often term have itchy pants and want to move faster than you can possibly go.
- PAUL: Yes, I understand what you are saying. So you're saying that, more or less, I have things that I have to catch up on, in the spiritual, mental, physical, the whole thing has to become aligned before I am able to go on to the next stage. I have to be in the proper energy.
- CHIEF: You must understand, as you term it, the ABC's. You have already mastered the part of Awareness. You are in the process of Balance, and then you will reach what you term Control. If you look back over your life, you have accomplished a great deal in the last three years.
- PAUL: Yes.
- CHIEF: This is only a beginning of what you will accomplish. As has been said before, you have a tendency of spinning your wheels. You can only go so fast, as we will only give you what you are capable of handling. At no time do we ever give you or anybody else more than you can handle, because it is wasted energy to do so. Why should we repeat something? Because in our world, it is perfect. Some of you might think, and even the channel will tell you, and he often complains, that bits and pieces are given to him, and not the whole picture. He could

(Change of tape to reverse)

PAUL: OK, go ahead.

CHIEF: If the mediums were not silenced 1600 years ago, your world would be further ahead than it is now. You wouldn't be in this ignorance that you are in. You would not have the crime on your earth plane. If you would realize that mediumship was the way of life, it was the only way of life, there were no hangups as you would call it. There were many bridges that connected your physical world and our world. These bridges were destroyed by what you call orthodox religion, and all the theologians of the past, the armies of priests, that marched through the cities and the towns and villages in the 4th Century, literally killing, beheading, butchering, and the blood flowed like rivers of those that did not accept that which they were teaching. There is not one person within this room that would understand the amount of people that drowned as they tried to escape in boats of all descriptions to an island, or to another land where they could worship as they pleased, while they tried to take their mediums with them, or their oracles or prophets as you would know it, in those days. The Mediterranean Sea was a sea of blood with all of those that were killed and butchered and thrown into the sea to be eaten by the sharks. All of those that had the gift of the spirit, all the mediums would find themselves hiding in the mountains and caves, living in the woods like animals. Being searched out by priests carrying swords. Even to this moment you do not know the meaning of the song that is often sung in the churches that deals with marching on: "Onward, Christian soldiers, marching as to war, with the cross of Jesus, going on before." Look at a sword, and you will find that the handle is made like a cross. How many of these crosses went all the way through the heart of innocent, beautiful people that you know today as mediums? And, my son Paul, you were one of them...butchered like an animal with the sword of a priest, simply because you would not accept their teaching. It is for that reason that you are here. Again, as a disciple, if you want to put it that way, of the medium that is now being used.

PAUL: We have watched each other. Have I watched other people in this room being burned? I have felt that I had seen somebody else die. I have been watching it..

CHIEF: In different lifetimes you were all followers of each other. Many of you were burned at the stake different lifetimes only to come right back again and continue the work that you were supposed to do until such time that it was forbidden to burn someone at the stake. The man that is being used at this moment has been burned many times

- CHIEF: (Cont'd) at the stake, beheaded, assassinated, drowned, and, as you want to put it another way, crucified, simply because of having the gift of the spirit. It is because of that...those remembrances of last lives...that has caused him to hold back in the present life. For in his early stages of life, this life, he was taken over and used as a channel, just as you have witnessed in the last few days, but because of the ignorance of his own family, his mother did not know what was going on, and his father thought that he was possessed by what you term the devil. Because of the gifts of the spirit, it created a lot of problems within the structure of the family, and therefore we have had to work patiently with him to bring him to the point of where he is today. You will see many changes around him as you go onward in the next few of your earth months. The changes will take place because of additional proof that he has needed to push him forward. We have spoken to him all of his life and yet the impact of what we have said has not always registered as it will be registering in this your year of 1986.
- PAUL: Chief, could I ask a question?
- CHIEF: Yes, you may.
- PAUL: About all this. You bring up this question that I have: Should we be focusing our attention on us as a group, on the church. We are inevitably going to be, but in many cases we are going to be in the media..or there are going to be situations where we are going to have a choice one way or the other, or somebody will see something that the channel has..could you give us some guidance on this?
- CHIEF: We are guiding the channel to take care of these changes as they come. Several of the group, such as little Florence, has some visions in symbolic form. We have guided her to go for guidance to the channel, and therefore, we have given a definition of the symbols to her. We would expect all the rest of you, too, because you must remember that we, as a whole, can give you the symbols or the experiences simply because you are part of the team working together with the channel. Therefore, we ask you rather than to go to each other, to go back to the source, to the channel, so we can give you proper guidance, so that you can have a definition, because it is through the channel that we bring this about in the first place. You are all linked up with the channel simply because he is the teacher for you; we are the teacher for him. Do you understand?
- PAUL, & OTHERS: Yes.

JOE: Spirit, do you have a message or guidance for our teacher at this time?

.....Out of trance.
