Cards Honoring Carl R. Hewitt

Dear Folks:

Carl was the first person to introduce my wife Sally + myself to spirit in 1983. I remember exactly when Oct. Sally was a dear friend of Carl's she went into the world of spirit in Apr 2003 we miss her but we have to go on. I went to Carl for a reading after listening to my wife's tape, I was very skeptical believe me, the reading was so accurate it blew my mind. I am now the president of The First Spiritualist Church of Willimantic the church Carl started out in.

Blessing
Bruce

But sometimes it's in our sadness that we learn the most. We remember a word, a look, or feeling from the past-- and realize that memories will hold us together.

We're left behind but not alone, as we let our loved one go on to a better place. They would want the same for us. Not to mourn, but to live our lives to the fullest.

Life is for living--and as hard as it is, we can lift our eyes to the sun and see a new day dawning. Our friend would have wanted it that way.
