As consciousness, let us all merge with the consciousness of the One I Am, in the truth of us and all that is, as the One I Am.

With each breath, let our focus point of that truth become keener and keener in our consciousness, on all levels of experience, as the soul that we are, as the source of Mother Father that we are, and allow our focus point, as we merge with the One I Am that we all are and all things are, in all of existence, all of creation, through all timelines, all dimensions, in all records of history, of existence, of Mother Source, Father Creator.

Each in-breath and out-breath, our focus becomes keener and keener, identifying the truth of us.

The illumination becomes brighter and brighter within the human consciousness, as the remembrance of our truth, as Mother Father Source Creator, imbues through the human brain, the human consciousness, the human physicality of density, the human breath.

We, as the Divine One I Am, illuminate brighter and brighter, as we expand further and further into the cosmos known as infinity.

And as our identification of such of the truth, in merging in the truth of consciousness with the One I Am consciousness that we are, all else that the human mind would feel it has to process through, or steps it has to take, melts away more and more, and the energy and consciousness of our truth, as Divine Source, as consciousness and energy increases as well, as the brilliant, divine, crystalline sphere that all is, in the consciousness of the One I Am.

Let us put our intention, our powerful intention, in our claiming of the powerful Creator that we are, as we do anchor in the truth of us more and more.

We start to feel the energy within the human consciousness, in the human physicality, in the quotient and frequency, amping up more and more, expanding more and more into all that is, and into the doorway and through the doorway of infinity.

Let us remember that in this now moment, claiming our truth, we are the affectors, not the affected.

And with the magic of the One I Am, that we are, that all is, emerging in the consciousness of our truth, we know that effortlessly, all that is intended within the consciousness of intention and purpose, is known and will be administered, will be experienced, is being experienced, is being felt, and all of the loving and light energy that we are, in our powerful knowing, in our powerful reclaiming, and in our powerful knowingness, all that is not in alignment with this truth, will be divinely realigned. And in that realignment, that which humans perceive as needed healing will occur, is occurring, has occurred.

And as we are connected in our truth, as the One I Am, within human consciousness, simply focus briefly on any energy of consciousness that is having a perception of separation, an individual experience, to be awakened and to feel this divine truth of the One I Am. And in that, all is well.

Let us invite the souls of those individuals to merge as well into the truth of the One I Am consciousness, and allow that higher self of soul to imbue and connect that truth into the physical mind and body of those that the intention has been set forth.

Let us now just be in the beingness of truth that we are, that all is, and in the connection of that truth, let us just be and release and breathe that truth and allow the power of the One I Am, of all that is throughout all of existence and creation, of Mother-Father, Mother-Source, Father-Creator, to be the love and the light of Mother as Father-Creator.

The imbuing, the anchoring into the human consciousness is sanctified with the grace of truth, and that grace of light and truth is permeating all consciousness.

It is touching all energy of that individuated consciousness that those perceive themselves to be.

The matrix of the One I Am is illuminating more and more.

And we, as the consciousness of light, and we as the consciousness of peace, breathe that truth.

The power and truth, and the truth of the power that we are, illuminates the crystalline consciousness of Mother Gaia, as well as the grid of Mother Gaia, as part of the One I Am that we all are.

And in that illumination, and then that activation, those consciousness merged within Mother Gaia, in the core of Mother Gaia, and those that tread upon the earth outer of Mother Gaia, are connected in that unity, in that truth, in that ONENESS of the One I Am, as well.

For the humanity of earth is not just upon the outer body of Mother Earth, but in the truth that we are, in these moments merged in that truth, in the power, the grace, the peace, the ONENESS, the love, and the light, all merges into that ONENESS.

Known or unknown in the human mind, that truth is ignited in all. In equality, as truth, as the consciousness of truth. As love, as the consciousness of love. As peace, as the consciousness of peace. In unity and ONENESS, as the consciousness of unity and ONENESS.

Void of duality, separation, polarity, and all the hindrances of the divine plan that have been set forth in the human mind and consciousness, as part of the engine of creation, of infinity.

There is no limit to the effect that the One I Am is manifesting in this now moment. All that perceive need are being relinquished for that, from that perception. All that perceive separation are being relinquished from that perception. All disease, emotional, physical, mental, all that is, in all levels, timeline, dimensions, is being relinquished.

And the orchestra and the synthesis of the symphony of the divine, of the divine breath, of all existence, of all creation, is in its beingness and in its truth.

And let us put out the intention that gentle reminders will imbue and continue to imbue through the human consciousness, as gentle reminders in the whisperings of the truth of the One I Am that we are.

And allow the consciousness of grace and peace and unity and togetherness, as one unified I Am, with the infinite intelligence and mathematical equation of the first spark of existence of Mother Source, be felt, remembered, and imbued through all expressions, that the One I Am is experiencing to better know its ability for further expansion, evolution, as the breath in the equation of the consciousness of infinity.

And as the powerful One I Am, we will highlight, we will bring a focus point to birth remembrance in all moments of sharing in the individuated illusion of separation, to assist the remembrance as the human consciousness continues its evolutionary divine remembrance.

Through all human consciousness, the birthing seed has been planted to assist one another in walking one another home to the One I Am, that all is, in all of existence, the gentle reminders as we experience ourselves and others in forgetfulness.

Allow that highlighting consciousness to imbue through all of our consciousness in the human, so that we can assist one another to breathe the One Breath, to remember the One Breath, experience the embodiment of the One Breath, the One I Am, that all is and will ever be.

The grace, the patientness of grace, where there is no need to forget because there was no judgment to begin with, that now too has been seeded to the human consciousness to be relinquished, so that the human illusion of separation and individuated experiences can be lulled to sleep lovingly, as the breath and the illumination and the light and the love of the truth awakens more and more.

Let us rest in peace in this now moment, in the intention of this gathering, into the truth, the matrix and the unity of that matrix of the One I Am.

Be the magic that it is, the limitless possibility of creational existence that it is, and let us leave with the intention that Mother Source's divine plan, divine desire, divine will, is for the birth that she wombed as Father Creator, as creation, through the law, the natural law of free will, so that Mother can be and impermeate all of existence, her initial spark of the ISNESS and the breath of her divine loving light.

And so it is. So it has always been and will always be.

The truth is the core light of expression of Mother's ISNESS of divine loving light, and all that is, that is experienced as Father Creator and in the beingness of Father Creator.

With intention, let us merge in the equality and anchor in the equality as consciousness and the equanimity and the androgyny of Mother Father, and allow the balance for the human experience, for the consciousness to remain forever tethered to the truth of the One I Am that all is, while keeping the consciousness and the human physical vehicle grounded with Mother Earth as part of the engine of creation that we are serving for the breath of evolution and infinity.

Like the androgyny of Mother Father, allow there and be, know there is, anchored in, in this now moment, the androgyny and the balanced state as consciousness, in equality, in our as above and so below, as our Divine Mother and our Divine Father, in all directions, to the zero point of the nucleus of all that is, all that has been, and all that will ever be.

Allow us to claim our truth, our Omnipresence, as the Divine One I Am, in the Omnipresence of all possibility, and in that balanced state, let us now breathe that balanced state, as above so below, emerging in the ONENESS and the androgyny of Mother Father, for where we are as consciousness, in any imbuing experience, through the human consciousness, that balanced state is our truth.

And allow us to have the intention of grounding ourselves in that balanced state of truth, of the One I Am breath of all that is.

When it feels comfortable, start to stay in that connection, in that ONENESS, in that truth, while we anchor back into the physicality of experience that we're having in the denser realms, and bring that Divine Remembrance with us.

And so it is.
